We'll be having a Canadian table at the annual IWOG (International Women's Organisation of Greece) Christmas bazaar -

11.00-18.00, on Dec. 6, Ingle Hall, Anatolia College. Proceeds for charity. See you there!

UPDATE. Good news – the Canadian table at the annual IWOG (International Women's Organisation of Greece) Christmas bazaar made 385 Euros! Besides helping transnationals integrate, Iwog supports several local charities. BIG CONGRATS to Canadian table coordinator Pam Karatzas, who made all of our crafts - at her own expense. And to the other volunteers who brought sweets or helped man the Canadian table.
